

Clifton Treasure Hunt
(Fiendish Questions set by Temple Local History Group)

Start point – ‘The Mall Pub’ at the top of The Mall in Clifton, Bristol

Question Number	Questions - Anticlockwise (See map)	Answer
1	Where is Pitt commemorated?
2	Monument to men who fell in Indian wars, erected by whom?
3	Bristol's answer to Harley Street; how many Medicos at this one?
4	How far is "Harley Street" from the centre of Bristol?
5	Decorative working water fountain; what's anachronistic about it?
6	What barley twist decorates a house?
7	What is the address of the barley twist?
8	Like a flash of lightning, to get to the Portway; what?
9	Numbers 27, 29 and 34 West Mall have a common decorative feature, what is it? (mind your feet)
10	Number 24 West Mall. What is heavenly about this address?
11	The Assembly rooms first, then a government "insisted" passage to Australia. Who?
12	When part of the Assembly Rooms was a hotel a famous person stayed there. Who? (consider adjacent street names)
13	Why is Macaulay's name mentioned?
14	Caledonia Place; what are the stone blocks for? How many are there?
15	Not the Royal Mail. But what?
16	A Priory, but with two Dolphins; where?

Clifton Treasure Hunt
(Fiendish Questions set by Temple Local History Group)

Question Number	Questions - Anticlockwise (See map)	Answer
17	And two Sphinxes; where?
18	How many caryatids?
19	Ostrich feather, a White Horse and a Blue Dragon. Where.
20	"Stick no Bills"; what form these edicts?
21	Where are they?
22	Royal York Crescent; what are the connections with Napoleon the Third?
23	Stone to my left, iron to my right. Where?
24	Ditto, what? (Jim'll fix it)
25	Iron to my right, but who made it?
26	There is a famous grotto nearby, in the grounds of which house? (all that glisters is not ... + housemaids' affliction)
27	Churchyard walk; why the 'razed' lawn?
28	Two barley twists. When viewed from the top, is the twist clockwise? (Yes or No)
29	Roman Road (but not usually a cul-de-sac); what is the name of this one?
30	Landsdown Place; why would the late Willie Hamilton MP have been pleased to post his letters in this one?
31	Archway, Boyces Avenue. What does this have in common with the Penny Black?
32	What do a Hotel, a Doctor, a Chemist, a High Commissioner, a Poet and an Admiral have in common?
33	How did the Dray get hitched at the Pub?	